NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.

PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.
THE PRIVACY OF YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION IS IMPORTANT TO US.

OUR LEGAL DUTY

We are required by applicable federal and state law to maintain the privacy of your health information. We are also required to give you this Notice about our privacy practices, our legal duties, and your rights concerning your health information. We must follow the privacy practices that are described in this Notice while it is in effect. This Notice takes effect April 14, 2003 and will remain in effect until we replace it.

We respect the right to change our privacy practices and the terms of this Notice at any time, provided such changes are permitted by applicable law. We reserve the right to make the changes in our privacy practices and the new terms of our Notice effective for all health information that we maintain, including health information we created or received before we made the changes. Before we make a significant change in our privacy practices, we will change this Notice and make the new Notice available upon request.

You may request a copy of our Notice at any time. For more information about our privacy practices, or for additional copies of this Notice, please contact us using the information listed at the end of this Notice.

USES AND DISCLOSURES OF HEALTH INFORMATION

We use and disclose health information about you for treatment, payment, and healthcare operations. For example:

Treatment: We may use or disclose your health information to a physician or other healthcare provider providing treatment to you.

Payment: We may use and disclose your health information to obtain payment for services we provide to you.

Healthcare Operations: We may use and disclose your health information in connection with our healthcare operations. Healthcare operations include quality assessment and improvement activities, reviewing the competence or qualifications of healthcare professional, evaluating practitioner and provider performance, conducting training programs, accreditation, certification, licensing or credentialing activities.

Your Authorization: In addition to our use of your health information for treatment, payment or healthcare operations, you may give us written authorization to use your health information or to disclose it to anyone for any purpose. If you give us an authorization, you may revoke it in writing at any time. Your revocation will not affect any use or disclosures permitted by your authorization while it was in effect. Unless you give us a written authorization, we cannot use or disclose your health information for any reason except those described in this Notice.

To Your Family and Friends: We must disclose your health information to you, as described in the Patient Rights section of this Notice. We may disclose your health information to a family member, friend or other person to the extent necessary to help with your healthcare or with payment for your healthcare, but only if you agree that we may do so.

Persons Involved In Care: We may use or disclose health information to notify, or assist in the notification of (including identifying or locating) a family member, your personal representative or another person responsible for your care, of your location, your general condition, or death. If you are present, then prior to use or disclosure of your health information, we will provide you with an opportunity to object to such uses or disclosures. In the event of your incapacity or emergency circumstances, we will disclose health information based on a determination using our healthcare. We will also use our professional judgment and our experience with common practice to make reasonable inferences of your best interest in allowing a person to pick up filled prescriptions, medical supplies, x-rays, or other similar forms of health information.

Marketing Health Related Services: We will not use your health information for marketing communications without your written authorization.

Required by Law: We may use or disclose your health information when we are required to do so by law.

Abuse or Neglect: We may disclose your health information to appropriate authorities if we reasonably believe that you are a possible victim of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence or the possible victim of other crimes. We may disclose your health information to the extent necessary to avert a serious threat to your health or safety or the health or safety of others.

National Security: We may disclose to military authorities the health information of Armed Forces personnel under certain circumstances. We may disclose to authorize federal officials health information required for lawful intelligence, counterintelligence, and other national security activities. We may disclose to correctional institution or law enforcement official having lawful custody of protected health information of inmate or patient under certain circumstances.

Appointment Reminders: We may use or disclose your health information to provide you with appointment reminders (such as voicemail messages, postcards, or letters).

PATIENT RIGHTS

Access: You have the right to look at or get copies of your health information, with limited exceptions. You may request that we provide copies in a format other than photocopies. We will use the format you request unless we cannot practicably do so. (You must make a request in writing to obtain access to your health information. You may obtain a form to request access by using the contact information listed at the end of this Notice. We will charge you a reasonable cost-based fee for expenses such as copies and staff time. You may also request access by sending us a letter to the address at the end of this Notice. If you request copies, we will charge you $0.____ for each page, $____per hour for staff time to locate and copy your health information, and postage if you want the copies mailed to you. If you prefer, we will prepare a summary or an explanation of your health information for a fee. Contact us using the information listed at the end of this Notice for a full explanation of our fee structure.)

Disclosure Accounting: You have the right to receive a list of instances in which we or our business associates disclosed your health information for purposes, other than treatment, payment, healthcare operations and certain other activities, for the last 6 years, but not before April 14, 2003. If you request this accounting more than once in a 12-month period, we may charge you a reasonable, cost-based fee for responding to these additional requests.

Restriction: You have the right to request that we place additional restriction on our use or disclosure of your health information. We are not required to agree to these additional restrictions, but if we do, we will abide by our agreement (except in an emergency).

Alternative Communication: You have the right to request that we communicate with you about your health information by alternative means or to alternative locations. (You must make your request in writing.) Your request must specify the alternative means or location, and provide satisfactory explanation how payments will be handled under the alternative means or location you request.

Amendment: You have the right to request that we amend your health information. (Your request must be in writing, and it must explain why the information should be amended.) We may deny your request under certain circumstances.

Electronic Notice: If you receive this Notice on our Web site or by electronic mail (e-mail), you are entitled to receive this Notice in written form.

QUESTIONS AND COMPLAINTS

If you want more information about our privacy practices or have questions or concerns, please contact us.

If you are concerned that we may have violated your privacy right, or you disagree with a decision we made about access to your health information or in response to a request you made to amend or restrict the use or disclosure of your health information or to have us communicate with you by alternative means or at alternative locations, you may complain to us using the contact information listed at the end of this Notice. You also may submit a written complaint to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. We will provide you with the address to file your complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services upon request.

We support your right to the privacy of your health information. We will not retaliate in any way if you choose to file a complaint with us or with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

PATIENT POLICY

In order to reduce the number of no-show appointments and the quality of your care, we have implemented the following patient policy:

- Appointments will not be rescheduled for new patients who arrive late or do not give a 24-hour notice.
- New patients must have insurance card and a form of picture ID.
- When multiple appointments are scheduled for a family, all future appointments will be cancelled if a family member misses an appointment.
- When 2 or more family members are scheduled and the family misses the appointment or does not give a 48-hour notice to cancel, future appointments will not be scheduled together.
- All family members will be released from care after 3 NO SHOW appointments or CANCELLATIONS without a 24/48-hour notice.
- We kindly ask for a 48-hour notice to cancel or reschedule a Root Canal, Crown/Bridge Prep or Teeth Whitening appointment and a 24-hour notice for all other appointments.
- Appointments are not guaranteed if they are not confirmed 24 hours in advanced.
- For failed appointments due to an emergency, patient can bring in appropriate documentation within 30 days to be excused.
- If patient arrive more than 15 minutes late without notifying the office, appointment will be marked as missed and patient will not be seen.
- Patients who do not return for care after 3 years will be inactive. Appointments will only be scheduled if we are accepting new patients.
- Parents/legal guardians must be present for initial and recall appointments for patients under 18. For other appointments, if parents/legal guardians are unable to be present, patient must bring a signed letter authorizing another adult to bring the patient for treatment and a contact number. Minors will not be seen if the above statement is not followed.
- Legal guardians of children placed under adoption, foster or kinship care must provide court order establishing guardianship and authority to consent for treatment before care is rendered.
- Only patients with an appointment will be allowed in the operatories. Exceptions will only be made by the dentist.
- Patients who do not comply with treatment will be dismissed from care.
- Full payment, Co-payments, co-insurance, and deductible are due at the time of service. Any remaining balance after your insurance has paid is your responsibility.
- Appointment for Root Canal, Crown/Bridge and Dentures requires a 50% deposit at the time of scheduling and the remaining at the time of service.
- $100 fee will be charged for missed or canceled appointment without 48-hour notice for Root Canal, Crown/Bridge, Teeth Whitening appointments and 6 Months Smile consultation.
- $150 fee will be charged for emergency visits that occur after hours or outside of our normal business hours.
- Changes to insurance, address, and telephone # should be updated with the front office.
- We must be informed of any changes to your medical history. Most importantly new medications, surgery, and pregnancy. Names of current medications will be required.
- Policy on Drugs and Intoxication - For the safety and well-being of all patients and staff, we reserve the right to decline treatment or dismiss patients who arrive intoxicated or exhibit signs of being under the influence of drugs, including marijuana. This includes individuals who smell strongly of substances. Thank you for understanding and helping us maintain a safe and professional environment.

smiLEE Dental has the right to terminate care at any time if patient refuses to acknowledge the patient policy. Thank you for your cooperation. We appreciate your trust in our service.
